To my many friends, customers and persons planning to plant out an orchard this Fall or Spring 1936 I advise that you place your order for the trees you wish early. I have my usual supply of fine one year peach trees available for the planter throughout the Country. Prices realized for peaches have created a heavy inquiry and demand for peach trees. The result of this will mean that a number of growers may be disappointed if they delay ordering until late. Apple trees are very scarce, due to the heavy demand last Spring and scarcity of nursery stock. Many nurserymen were not able to get seedlings last Spring. I cannot supply some varieties in two year trees in any quantity. I do have a nice lot of one year apple that I am sure will please. Come to the nursery and see the trees if you can. Order early.
